Prayer for Vocations

Almighty and eternal God, in your unfailing love you provide ministers for your Church. We pray for those whom you call to priesthood or religious life. We pray especially for Omar Lara whom you called from our Parish Community. Inspire in him and in all others a generous response. Grant them courage, wisdom, and grace to follow the path they have chosen and to serve your people with a generous mind and a humble heart. May their lives and lives of all of us be of inspiration for the discerning youth. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary whom we honor as Our Lady of Guadalupe, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

What Cancer Cannot Do

Cancer is limited…
It cannot cripple love
It cannot shatter hope
It cannot corrode faith
It cannot destroy peace
It cannot kill friendship
It cannot suppress memories
It cannot silence courage
It cannot invade the soul
It cannot steal eternal life
It cannot conquer the spirit

Lo que el Cancer no puede hacer

El cáncer es limitado...
No puede paralizar el amor
No puede romper la esperanza
No puede corroer la fe
No puede destruir la paz.
No puede matar la amistad.
No puede suprimir los recuerdos.
No puede silenciar el coraje
No puede invadir el alma.
No puede robar la vida eterna.
No puede conquistar el espíritu.

Message from the Pastor

Jesus doesn't work alone. He calls us to work with him. We respond to that call by following his commandments and obeying the teachings of his Church. We respond by keeping our prayer life in shape and embracing the sacraments. We respond by looking for opportunities to draw others closer to Christ through our courageous but respectful words and through our tireless example of humility, faith, and selfless concern for our neighbor.

We respond by listening for the small inspirations the Holy Spirit sends us each day - inspirations that almost always lead us out of our comfort zones for the sake of our neighbor. Jesus calls, and we must respond, leaving behind the boat that we love and the nets that we depend on.

It is not always easy to respond to Christ's call. Life is already hard. When he asks more of us, our first reaction is usually to hesitate, or even to rebel. That's when we have to remember why Jesus keeps calling us. It's because he loves us. It's because he wants us to be with him. It's because he knows that only he can fill our hearts with the meaning and purpose we yearn for. He will remind us of this today during Mass. It's only because he has called us to be his followers that we will have this remarkable opportunity to receive God himself at Holy Communion. When we do, let's thank him for not giving up on us, for continuing to call us - and let's promise him that this week we will listen with extra attention.

On another note: I have good news for you as we begin this new year! With your help and contribution, we were able to pay off the loan amount of $446,601.00 due to the Diocese. We still have the guarantee amount of $300,039.00 to be paid to the Diocese, however, that does not accumulate any interest. We will pay that too, at the earliest. Thank you one and all for your commitment and generosity.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Sanctuary Candle For the healing of the sick in our Parish

January 21 - January 27, 2023

Mensaje del Párroco

Jesús no trabaja solo. Él nos llama a trabajar con él. Respondemos a ese llamado siguiendo sus mandamientos y obedeciendo las enseñanzas de su Iglesia. Respondemos manteniendo nuestra vida de oración en forma y abrazando los sacramentos. Respondemos buscando oportunidades para acercar a otros a Cristo a través de nuestras palabras valientes pero respetuosas y a través de nuestro ejemplo incansable de humildad, fe y preocupación desinteresada por nuestro prójimo.

Respondemos escuchando las pequeñas inspiraciones que el Espíritu Santo nos envía cada día, inspiraciones que casi siempre nos sacan de nuestra zona de confort por el bien de nuestro prójimo. Jesús llama, y debemos responder, dejando atrás la barca que amamos y las redes de las que dependemos.

No siempre es fácil responder a la llamada de Cristo. La vida ya es dura. Cuando nos pide más, nuestra primera reacción suele ser dudar, o incluso rebelarse. Ahí es cuando tenemos que recordar por qué Jesús nos sigue llamando. Es porque nos ama. Es porque quiere que estemos con él. Es porque sabe que solo él puede llenar nuestros corazones con el significado y el propósito que anhelamos. Él nos recordará esto hoy durante la Misa. Es solo porque nos ha llamado a ser sus seguidores que tendremos esta extraordinaria oportunidad de recibir a Dios mismo en la Sagrada Comunión. Cuando lo hagamos, démosle las gracias por no darse por vencido con nosotros, por seguir llamándonos, y prometámosle que esta semana lo escucharemos con más atención.

En otra nota: ¡Tengo buenas noticias para ustedes ahora que comenzamos este nuevo año! Con su ayuda y contribución, pudimos pagar el monto del préstamo de $446,601.00 adeudado a la Diócesis. Todavía tenemos el monto de la garantía de $300,039.00 a pagar a la Diócesis, sin embargo, eso no acumula ningún interés. Eso también lo pagaremos, lo antes posible. Gracias a todos por su compromiso y generosidad.

¡Que tengan un Bendecido Domingo!

Saint of the Week/Santo de la Semana

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

(Jan 22), St. Matthew Alonso Leziniana

He was born in Navas del Rey in Spain and became a Dominican priest. Assigned originally to the Philippines, he was sent later to Vietnam where he was beheaded during the anti-Christian oppression. Vietnamese Martyrs were mostly Dominican and Jesuit missionaries. The tortures of these individuals underwent are considered by the Vatican to be among the worst in the history of Christian martyrdom. The torturers chopped off limbs joint by joint, tore flesh with red hot tongs, and used drugs to enslave the minds of the victims. Christians at the time were branded on the face with the words "tả đạo" "Left (Evil)religion") were annihilated. The Catholic Church in Vietnam was devastated during the Tây Sơn rebellion in the late 18th century. Converts began to be harassed, In 1832, the first act occurred in a largely Catholic village near Hue, with the entire community being imprisoned and sent into exile in Cambodia. In January 1833, a new kingdom-wide edict was passed calling on Vietnamese subjects to reject the religion of Jesus and required suspected Catholics to demonstrate their renunciation by walking on a wooden cross.

(22 ene), San Mateo Alonso Leziniana

Nació en Navas del Rey en España y se convirtió en sacerdote Dominico. Fue asignado originalmente a Filipinas, fue enviado más tarde a Vietnam donde fue decapitado durante la opresión anticristiana. Los Mártires Vietnamitas eran en su mayoría misioneros Dominicos y Jesuitas. El Vaticano considera que las torturas sufridas por estas personas se encuentran entre las peores en la historia del martirio Cristiano. Los torturadores cortaron extremidades coyuntura por coyuntura, desgarraron la carne con tenazas al rojo vivo y usaron drogas para esclavizar las mentes de las víctimas. Los Cristianos en ese momento fueron marcados en la cara con las palabras "tả đạo" "Religión (malvada) de izquierda") fueron aniquilados. La Iglesia Católica en Vietnam fue devastada durante la rebelión de Tây Sơn a fines del siglo XVIII. Los conversos comenzaron a ser hostigados. En 1832, el primer acto ocurrió en un pueblo mayoritariamente Católico cerca de Hue, y toda la comunidad fue encarcelada y exiliada en Camboya. En enero de 1833, se aprobó un nuevo edicto en todo el reino llamando a los súbditos Vietnamitas a rechazar la religión de Jesús y exigiendo a los sospechosos de ser católicos que demostraran su renuncia caminando sobre una cruz de madera.
