On the First Palm Sunday Christ's victory is symbolized by the donkey that Christ rode into Jerusalem.

The first symbolic meaning of the donkey shows us how Christ won his victory over sin and evil: through humility. A donkey is a useful beast of burden, but not a glorious and impressive one. And that's exactly like the Christian virtue of humility, by which we lower ourselves in order to help raise up others, to serve them. And this is what Jesus did, as St. Paul tells us in today's Second Reading: "...he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness... he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. God becoming man and taking up residence in this sinful world is the ultimate act of humility."

Just as Jesus rides the humble donkey into the city of Jerusalem, so he rides the virtue of humility through this sinful world in order to blaze a path for us into heaven. He humbles himself to save us out of love.

The second symbolic meaning is more directly connected to Christ's victory. In ancient times, military commanders who were engaged in battle and conquest would ride on the most efficient beasts for war: strong, fast, powerful warhorses. But after a battle was won, the victorious general would parade into the city riding on - you guessed it - a donkey.

That is why the people shouted out when they saw Jesus' riding into Jerusalem on a donkey. It was a sign for them; it meant that Jesus had conquered and was bringing the peace of his Kingdom (though they didn't yet understand what kind of kingdom it was).

On this Palm Sunday liturgy, everything - even the humble donkey - shines brilliantly with the aura of Christ's amazing victory over evil and sin. What a beautiful way to begin our journey through this Holy Week!

Have a Blessed Holy week!

En el Primer Domingo de Ramos, la victoria de Cristo está simbolizada por el burro que Cristo montó hacia Jerusalén.

El primer significado simbólico del burro nos muestra cómo Cristo obtuvo su victoria sobre el pecado y el mal: a través de la humildad. Un burro es una bestia de carga útil, pero no gloriosa ni impresionante. Y eso es exactamente como la virtud cristiana de la humildad, por la cual nos rebajamos para ayudar a levantar a los demás, para servirles. Y esto es lo que hizo Jesús, como nos dice San Pablo en la Segunda Lectura de hoy: "...se despojó a sí mismo, tomando forma de esclavo, haciéndose semejante a la humanidad... se humilló a sí mismo, haciéndose obediente hasta el punto de muerte, incluso muerte de cruz. Dios al hacerse hombre y establecer su residencia en este mundo pecaminoso es el acto supremo de humildad".

Así como Jesús monta el humilde burro hacia la ciudad de Jerusalén, así cabalga la virtud de la humildad a través de este mundo pecaminoso para abrirnos un camino hacia el cielo. Él se humilla para salvarnos por amor.

El segundo significado simbólico está más directamente relacionado con la victoria de Cristo. En la antigüedad, los comandantes militares que participaban en batallas y conquistas cabalgaban sobre las bestias más eficientes para la guerra: caballos de guerra fuertes, rápidos y poderosos. Pero después de ganar una batalla, el general victorioso desfilaba hacia la ciudad montado (lo adivinaste) en un burro.

Por eso la gente gritó cuando vio a Jesús entrar en Jerusalén montado en un burro. Fue una señal para ellos; significaba que Jesús había conquistado y estaba trayendo la paz de su Reino (aunque todavía no entendían qué clase de reino era).

En esta liturgia del Domingo de Ramos, todo, incluso el humilde burro, brilla con el aura de la asombrosa victoria de Cristo sobre el mal y el pecado. ¡Qué hermosa manera de comenzar nuestro recorrido por esta Semana Santa!

¡Que tengan una Bendecida Semana Santa!

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

How do you encourage Sacrifice to your Children?

Why do we call Good Friday “good”? It’s a question kids often ask. What the Romans did to Jesus on that day wasn’t good, of course, but Jesus’ loving sacrifice of himself for our sake is good—very good. Talk to your kids about the importance of Sacrifice reflected here.

- A player passes the ball to his teammate so they can be the one to score.
- A man standing in line at the store lets a mother with crying kids check out before him.
- A girl puts down the game she is playing and sets the table for her mother.
- A father gets up in the middle of the night to sit with his child who is having a nightmare.
- A family gives $100 to a charity that provides clean water to villagers in rural Africa.
- A teenage girl stays at the dinner table a little longer to listen to her younger brother talk about his bad day.

Sacrifice has two parts: the “giving up” part and the “good of someone else” part. It’s the second part contributing to someone else’s happiness or wellbeing that makes it worthwhile. You’re not just “giving up” that piece of cake; you are turning it into love.

¿Cómo fomentas el sacrificio a tus hijos?

¿Por qué llamamos “bueno” al Viernes Santo? Es una pregunta que suelen hacer los niños. Lo que los romanos le hicieron a Jesús ese día no fue bueno, por supuesto, pero el amoroso sacrificio de Jesús por nosotros es bueno, muy bueno. Hable con sus hijos sobre la importancia del Sacrificio reflejado aquí.

- Un jugador pasa el balón a su compañero para que sea él quien marque.
- Un hombre que hace cola en la tienda deja que una madre con sus hijos llorando pague antes que él.
- Una niña deja el juego que está jugando y pone la mesa para su madre.
- Un padre se levanta en mitad de la noche para sentarse con su hijo que está teniendo una pesadilla.
- Una familia dona 100 dólares a una organización benéfica que proporciona agua potable a los aldeanos de las zonas rurales de África.
- Una adolescente se queda un poco más en la mesa para escuchar a su hermano menor hablar de su mal día.

El sacrificio tiene dos partes: la parte de “entregarse” y la parte de “bien a otra persona”. Es la segunda parte que contribuye a la felicidad o el bienestar de otra persona la que hace que valga la pena. No estás simplemente “renunciando” a ese pedazo de pastel; lo estás convirtiendo en amor.
