The Baptism of the Lord

January 10, 2016

He saved us through the bath of rebirth
and renewal by the Holy Spirit.
— Titus 3:5

Pastor's Message

Dear Friends,

Some of you may not have received a Christmas letter – in fact no one who lives in the 94536 zip code received it. We sent you a letter, but the post office decided to return them for some reason. Oh well. I'm sure you didn't want to read my letter anyway…..

A subject that comes up quite often in the confessional is pornography – both for men and women. Here are a couple of resources if you might be fighting with this addiction:

The first is a talk by Jason Evert, who is a Catholic.
https://www.lighthousecatholicmedia.org/store/title/detox?

The second resource is a website. This is not specifically Catholic, but is Christian based:
http://www.theporneffect.com/

As we reflect on the Baptism of the Lord, may we rejoice in the life we have in Christ through our own baptisms,

Fr. John Prochaska

MANIFESTING THE SPIRIT

The Christmas season closes this Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. This feast is a sister to last week's feast of the Epiphany. Each of them celebrates an "epiphany," or a manifestation of the Spirit of God in Jesus—first in his birth, and now at his baptism.

The divine Spirit is manifested in all of the scriptures for this feast. Psalm 104 highlights the Spirit of God creating and renewing the earth, while the reading from Isaiah describes God restoring Israel. In Luke's account of the baptism of the Lord the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus. And the letter to Titus reminds us that the Holy Spirit was "richly poured out" on us also, through the "bath of rebirth" (Titus 3:5, 6).

ALL ABOUT ST. PAUL

Join Fr. Jim Sullivan, Chaplain for Bishop O'Dowd High School, for a Sunday Afternoon Talk, ALL ABOUT ST. PAUL, on Sunday January 24, 2-4 PM in McCollum Hall. Light refreshments will be provided.

TURNING THE TIDE

When everything goes against you, till it seems as though you could not hold on a minute longer, never give up then, for that is just the place and time that the tide will turn.

Mensaje del Pastor

Mis queridos amigos,

Posiblemente algunos de ustedes no han recibido su carta de Navidad - por seguro, nadie que vive en el código postal 94536 la recibió. Les enviamos una carta, pero la oficina del servicio postal decidió regresarlas por algún motivo. Bueno, no creo que ustedes hayan querido leer mi carta de cualquier manera.

Un asunto que se presenta muy seguido en el confesionario es la pornografia - en ambos hombres y mujeres. Enseguida les presento un par de recursos que les pueden ayudar a luchar contra esta adiccion: La primera es una platica por Jason Evert, que es Catolico.
https://www.lighthousecatholicmedia.org/store/title/detox?

El siguiente recurso es una página de internet. Esta no es específicamente Catolico pero esta basado en el Cristianismo:

Al reflexionar en el Bautizo del Señor, regocijémonos en la vida que tenemos en Cristo por nuestros propios bautismos,

Padre John Prochaska
