MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Few days ago, I was recollecting about the celebrations of the Holy Week in India when I was in the elementary school. We would walk home from the Church on Good Friday, and as we walk, we were not supposed to talk. This silent reflection mode continued through the whole of Holy Saturday until after the vigil. We were not allowed to play, run, or shout and Holy Saturday seemed a day that lasted forever. It was something like a retreat experience for us kids.

The four gospels do not tell us much about what happened on the Saturday between Good Friday and Easter Sunday. We know that after Jesus died, the disciples stayed behind locked doors for fear of the Jewish leaders. In the various Christian traditions, this day goes by several names: Holy Saturday, Great Saturday, Easter Eve and Silent Saturday. Holy Saturday was meant for rest and reflection because on this day, Jesus "rested" in the tomb and Easter Vigil began after sundown on Saturday night.

Last Thursday, we celebrated the institution of the Holy Eucharist; on Good Friday, we celebrated the Lord's Passion and death on the Cross. On Holy Saturday, his body rested in the tomb. On Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday, we celebrate his resurrection to new life. The crucifixion is behind us, unlike when I was a kid Saturday does not last forever.

The resurrection of Christ is the greatest miracle which history records. Therefore, we ask the risen Christ, who turns death into life, to change hatred into love, vengeance into forgiveness, war into peace. Yes, Christ is our peace, and through him, we implore peace in our family, in our community and in the world. The resurrection is at work in us each time we choose to give succor and to love Jesus in our neighbor; each time we prefer His forgiveness to hate, each time we allow love and peace to claim a place in our lives.

Wish you all a Happy & Blessed Easter!

MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

Hace unos días, estaba recordando las celebraciones de la Semana Santa en la India cuando estaba en la primaria. Caminábamos a casa desde la Iglesia el Viernes Santo, y mientras caminábamos, se suponía que no debíamos hablar. Este modo de reflexión silenciosa continuó durante todo el Sábado Santo hasta después de la vigilia. No se nos permitía jugar, correr ni gritar y el Sábado Santo parecía un día que duraba para siempre. Fue algo así como una experiencia de retiro para nosotros los niños.

Los cuatro evangelios no nos dicen mucho sobre lo que sucedió el sábado entre el Viernes Santo y el Domingo de Resurrección. Sabemos que después de la muerte de Jesús, los discípulos se quedaron a puertas cerradas por temor a los líderes judíos. En las diversas tradiciones cristianas, este día recibe varios nombres: Sábado Santo, Sábado Grande, Nochebuena y Sábado de Silencio. El Sábado Santo estaba destinado al descanso y la reflexión porque en este día, Jesús "descansó" en la tumba y la Vigilia Pascual comenzó después de la puesta del sol del sábado por la noche.

El jueves pasado celebramos la institución de la Sagrada Eucaristía; el Viernes Santo celebramos la Pasión y muerte del Señor en la Cruz. El Sábado Santo, su cuerpo descansó en el sepulcro. En la Vigilia Pascual y el Domingo de Resurrección, celebramos su resurrección a una vida nueva. La crucifixión ha quedado atrás, a diferencia de cuando yo era niño, el sábado no dura para siempre.

La resurrección de Cristo es el milagro más grande que registra la historia. Por eso, pidamos a Cristo resucitado, que convierta la muerte en vida, que cambie el odio en amor, la venganza en perdón, la guerra en paz. Sí, Cristo es nuestra paz, y a través de él imploramos la paz en nuestra familia, en nuestra comunidad y en el mundo. La resurrección obra en nosotros cada vez que optamos por socorrer y amar a Jesús en el prójimo; cada vez que preferimos su perdón al odio, cada vez que permitimos que el amor y la paz tomen un lugar en nuestras vidas.

FAMILY ENRICHMENT

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

How is your married life?

Is your marriage a mess, hard, struggle, and challenge? Struggles of communication, disagreement, arguments, bossiness of one spouse get in your way. There may be a past wound of trust and betrayal. How can we live our marriages perfectly with all this? Marriage is all about healing wounds.

The healing of God can happen when you love each other as God wants. By this, the grace of this sacrament flows into your marriage.

At times, when you don't want to or don't feel like loving as God wants, then you turn to God for strength.

You don't try to fix it on your own.

Marriage is a ministry, you serve each other. Your children should see you and say, “See how our parents are able love one another”.

When something happens, you not only argue and fight, but instead be together to get it through.

At the end of the day, how hard are you working to have deeper love, intimacy, Godly marriage, and family is important.

Try this!

Take a picture & send to your daughter or son.

¿Cómo es su vida de casado?

Es su matrimonio un desastre, difícil, con problemas y desafíos? La falta de comunicación, los desacuerdos, las discusiones, el mando de uno de los cónyuges se interponen en su camino. Puede haber una herida pasada de confianza y traición. ¿Cómo pueden vivir sus matrimonios perfectamente con todo esto? El matrimonio se trata de curar las heridas.

La sanación de Dios puede suceder cuando se aman como Dios quiere. Por esto, la gracia de este sacramento fluye en su matrimonio.

A veces, cuando no quieres o no tienes ganas de amar como Dios quiere, recurras a Dios en busca de fortaleza.

No intentas arreglarlo por tu cuenta.

El matrimonio es un ministerio, se sirven unos a otros. Tus hijos deberían verlos y decir: “Mira cómo nuestros padres se aman”.

Cuando algo sucede, no solo se discute y pelean, sino que están juntos para sobrellevarlo.

Al final del día, es importante cuán duro estás trabajando para tener un amor más profundo, una intimidad, un matrimonio piadoso, y la familia es importante.

¡Intenta esto!

Tome una foto y envíela a su hija o hijo.
