GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Gracious and loving God,
we thank you for the gift of our priests,
especially Fr. Joy, Fr. Gabriel & Fr. Hai.

Through them, we experience
your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.

Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Excerpt from United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

ORACION POR LOS SACERDOTES

Dios misericordioso y amoroso,
te damos gracias por el don de nuestros Sacerdotes, especialmente por el Padre Joy, Padre Gabriel y Padre Hai.

A través de ellos, experimentamos
tu presencia en los sacramentos.

Ayuda a nuestros Sacerdotes a ser fuertes en su vocación. Enciende sus almas con amor por tu pueblo. Concédeles la sabiduría, el entendimiento y la fuerza que necesitan para seguir los pasos de Jesús. Inspíralos con la visión de tu Reino. Dales las palabras que necesitan para difundir el Evangelio.

Permíteles experimentar gozo en su ministerio. Ayúdalos a convertirse en instrumentos de tu divina gracia.

Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, que vive y
reina como nuestro
Eterno Sacerdote. Amén.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Pope Paul VI, in 1964, established the Fourth Sunday of Easter, also known as the Good Shepherd Sunday as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Israel had long been a shepherding people. None of the eloquent details of the comparison would have been lost on Jesus' listeners. Most of us have seen the image of a shepherd carrying a little lamb around his shoulders - one of the favorite images for Christ in early Christian art, with a surprising meaning.

Jesus wants us to know who he is: the Good Shepherd who protects and cares. Shepherds always want their sheep to be healthy and happy. They want them to have the best grass, fresh water, and safety, so that they can grow and multiply as much as possible. A sheep has no greater friend than a good shepherd, and we have no greater friend than Christ. And so, with his flock, the problem is not the shepherd's limitations or ignorance, but the sheep's lack of docility: because we tend to stray from the flock and trap ourselves in thistles and swamps of self-centeredness, self-indulgence, and stubborn disobedience.

In Palestine shepherds often sleep in the opening of the sheepfold, which is made of a large circle of thick, high shrubbery. This way, wolves smell the shepherd's presence and fear to make midnight raids, while the sheep keep together inside, comforted by the presence of their protector and guide. When the day finally dawns, the shepherd rises to lead his sheep out to pasture. Thus, the opening of the gate symbolizes both protection and nourishment.

On March 28, 2013, Pope Francis invited all the priests to be "Shepherds living the smell of the sheep". What a beautiful thought for a Good Shepherd Sunday! So, on this Good Shepherd Sunday let us pray for the holiness of our priests and let us also pray for vocations to priesthood and religious life.

Have a Blessed Good Shepherd Sunday!

Have a Blessed Good Shepherd Sunday!

MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

El Papa Pablo VI, en 1964, instituyó el Cuarto Domingo de Pascua, también conocido como Domingo del Buen Pastor, como la Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones.

Israel había sido durante mucho tiempo un pueblo de pastores. Ninguno de los detalles elocuentes de la comparación se habría perdido para los oyentes de Jesús. La mayoría de nosotros hemos visto la imagen de un pastor que lleva un corderito sobre sus hombros, una de las imágenes favoritas de Cristo en el arte cristiano primitivo, con un significado sorprendente.

Jesús quiere que sepamos quién es él: el Buen Pastor que protege y cuida. Los pastores siempre quieren que sus ovejas estén sanas y felices. Quieren que tengan el mejor pasto, agua fresca y seguridad, para que puedan crecer y multiplicarse tanto como sea posible. Una oveja no tiene mayor amigo que un buen pastor, y nosotros no tenemos mayor amigo que Cristo. Y así, con su rebaño, el problema no son las limitaciones o la ignorancia del pastor, sino la falta de docilidad de las ovejas: porque tendemos a desviarnos del rebaño y atraparnos en cardos y pantanos de egocentrismo, autocomplacencia y desobediencia.

En Palestina, los pastores suelen dormir en la abertura del redil, que está hecho de un gran círculo de arbustos espesos y altos. Así, los lobos huelen la presencia del pastor y temen hacer correrías de medianoche, mientras las ovejas se mantienen juntas adentro, reconfortadas por la presencia de su protector y guía. Cuando finalmente amanece, el pastor se levanta para llevar a sus ovejas a pastar. Por lo tanto, la apertura de la puerta simboliza tanto la protección como el alimento.

El 28 de marzo de 2013, el Papa Francisco invitó a todos los sacerdotes a ser “Pastores viviendo el olor de las ovejas”. ¡Qué hermoso pensamiento para un Domingo del Buen Pastor! Entonces, en este Domingo del Buen Pastor oremos por la santidad de nuestros sacerdotes y oremos también por las vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa.

¡Que tengan un Bendecido Domingo del Buen Pastor!

FAMILY ENRICHMENT

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

Have you ever felt the need to apologize to your kid?

As a parent you always get frustrated, become angry, raise your voice, yell at your kid. Let us say, one of your kid eyes is filled with tears. Imagine this way, the words that came out of your mouth are the words that came out your dad’s or mom’s mouth. The eyes in front of you filled with tears are your eyes so many years ago. You could be handling things the way your dad or mom chose to. You might be using your authority, that you are in-charge, and that your kid tears could be irrelevant to you. What do you do?

- Get closer to your kid and say, “I am so sorry that I yelled at you, you don’t deserve that”.
- Don’t delay or wait to apologize. Once a month, have a ritual of washing the feet of each other, as Jesus did.
- Never create a memory in your child that you mistreated them, never asked for forgiveness.
- When you do, your kid learns from you.

(From a mom who lost her child)

Try it. Take a picture & send to your daughter and son.

¿Alguna vez han sentido la necesidad de disculparse con su hijo?

Como padre, siempre te frustras, te enojas, levantas la voz, le gritas a tu hijo. Digamos que uno de los ojos de tu niño está lleno de lágrimas. Imagínalo de esta manera, las palabras que salieron de tu boca son las palabras que salieron de la boca de tu papá o de tu mamá. Los ojos frente a ti llenos de lágrimas son tus ojos hace tantos años. Podrías estar manejando las cosas de la misma manera que tu papá o tu mamá lo hicieron. Es posible que esten usando su autoridad, de que ustedes están a cargo y que sus lágrimas del niño podrían ser irrelevantes para ustedes. ¿Qué haces?

- Acérquese a su hijo y dígame: "Siento mucho haberte gritado, no te lo mereces".
- No se demore ni espere para disculparse. Una vez al mes, tengan un ritual de lavarse los pies unos a otros, como lo hizo Jesús.
- Nunca crees en tu hijo un recuerdo de que lo maltrataste, nunca le pediste perdón.
- Cuando lo hace, su hijo aprende de usted.

(De una mamá que perdió a su hijo)

Intentalo. Tome una foto y envíela a su hija e hijo.
