MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Most churches if it is open during the daytime, we see Catholics practice the ancient tradition of making frequent visits to the Eucharist throughout the day. Even in our church, we can almost always find someone kneeling and praying before the tabernacle. The red candle burning near the tabernacle, the sanctuary lamp, is a constant reminder that Christ is truly present there, and his love is burning for us. This is also why Catholics still have the tradition of making the sign of the cross when they drive by a Catholic Church.

Even if we don't have time to stop and make a visit to our Lord, to thank him for his blessings and tell him all our needs and sorrows, by making the sign of the cross we show our faith in and appreciation for his constant, miraculous presence. Let us thank Jesus for this wonderful gift to us.

Last week we had the Exhibition of the Eucharistic miracles around the world. We saw the compiled collection of 156 of them. It was a beautiful experience for us all to see those pictures and know the story behind each of those miracles. It not only enriches our faith but makes us become aware of the constant presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It was also a beautiful way to prepare ourselves for the year of the Eucharistic revival which we begin today on this solemnity of “Corpus Christi”. I would like to thank all those volunteers who spent their time to make this possible for our parish community. THANK YOU ALL SO MUCH!

Also, I would like to congratulate all the Confirmation Candidates for their effort and time in preparation for the sacrament. Thanks also to their parents and all the catechists and especially to Juan Jose and Cori. Congrats also to all graduates of this year, both from our school and from the many schools and colleges around! Furthermore, thank you Fr. Gabriel and Dance Groups' Encore Performance this past Sunday. Your beautiful and creative performance brought great joy to the community.

Have a Blessed Solemnity of the “Corpus Christi” and see you all at the procession!

MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

La mayoría de las iglesias, si está abierta durante el día, vemos que los católicos practican la antigua tradición de hacer frecuentes visitas a la Eucaristía durante todo el día. Incluso en nuestra iglesia, casi siempre podemos encontrar a alguien arrodillado y orando ante el tabernáculo. La vela roja que arde cerca del tabernáculo, la lámpara del santuario, es un recordatorio constante de que Cristo está realmente presente allí y que su amor arde por nosotros. Esta es también la razón por la cual los católicos todavía tienen la tradición de hacer la señal de la cruz cuando pasan por una iglesia católica.

Aunque no tengamos tiempo para detenernos y hacer una visita a nuestro Señor, para agradecerle sus bendiciones y contarle todas nuestras necesidades y dolores, al hacer la señal de la cruz mostramos nuestra fe y aprecio por su constante, presencia milagrosa.

Hablando de Jesús en la Eucaristía, San Pedro dice: "Él ama, Él confía, Él espera". "Nuestro Señor prefiere esperar durante años al pecador que hacerlo esperar un instante". Sólo un Dios que anhela verdaderamente quedarse con nosotros podría haber instituido la Eucaristía, el mayor tesoro de su presencia entre nosotros y para nosotros.

La semana pasada tuvimos la Exposición de los Milagros Eucarísticos alrededor del mundo. Vimos la colección recopilada de 156 de ellos. Fue una hermosa experiencia para todos nosotros, ver esas fotos y conocer la historia detrás de cada uno de esos milagros. No sólo enriquece nuestra fe sino que nos hace tomar conciencia de la presencia constante de Cristo en la Eucaristía. Fue también una hermosa manera de prepararnos para el año del Reavivamiento Eucarístico que comenzamos hoy en esta solemnidad de "Corpus Christi". Me gustaría agradecer a todos los voluntarios que dedicaron su tiempo para hacer esto posible para nuestra comunidad Parroquial. ¡Muchas gracias a todos!

Además, me gustaría felicitar a todos los Candidatos a la Confirmación por su esfuerzo y tiempo en la preparación para el sacramento. Gracias también a sus padres y a todos los catequistas y en especial a Juan José y Cori. ¡Felicitaciones también a todos los graduados de este año, tanto de nuestra escuela como de las muchas escuelas y universidades de alrededor! Además, gracias al Padre Gabriel y a los grupos de baile por su presentaciones el pasado domingo. Sus hermosas y creativas presentaciones trajeron gran alegría a la comunidad.

¡Que tengan una Bendecida Solemnidad de Corpus Christi!

“The power of Extravagant Affection to your children”

Affection stimulates the human brain's ability to self-regulate and feel safe. When you offer affection, your children can feel the same. An article came out in 'The Guardian' on "The Sleep Watcher" by Rawan Hisayo Buchanan, talks about a Teenager girl who was troubled with depression. She tried to hide it, but it returned. Her mother decided to move into her bed. At first it was ridiculous to do it. Her mom stayed with the daughter until she thought her daughter was well enough to spend nights by herself. This shows a dramatic example of the power of affection. Extravagant affection and affirmation to your children is a perfect way of experiencing Christ's sacrificial love in your home. A boost is anything that makes someone else feel good about themselves.

Discussion Questions:

- What is your favorite type of boost to get?
- How does it make you feel when someone compliments or thanks you?
- Can you think of some examples of boosts that we could give one another?
- On a scale of one to five, how well do you think our family does at giving one another boosts?

(From Catholic.Hom)

“El poder del Cariño Extravagante a tus hijos”

El afecto estimula la capacidad del cerebro humano para autorregularse y sentirse seguro. Cuando ofreces cariño, tus hijos pueden sentir lo mismo. Salió un artículo en 'The Guardian' sobre "The Sleep Watcher" de Rawan Hisayo Buchanan, habla de una adolescente que tenía problemas de depresión. Trató de ocultarlo, pero volvió. Su madre decidió mudarse a su cama. Al principio era ridículo hacerlo. Su madre se quedó con la hija hasta que pensó que estaba lo suficientemente bien como para pasar las noches sola. Esto muestra un ejemplo dramático del poder del cariño. El afecto extravagante y la afirmación de sus hijos es una manera perfecta de experimentar el amor sacrificial de Cristo en su hogar. Un impulso es cualquier cosa que hace que otra persona se sienta bien consigo misma.

Preguntas de discusión:

- ¿Cuál es tu tipo favorito de impulso para obtener?
- ¿Cómo te sientes cuando alguien te felicita o te agradece?
- ¿Puedes pensar en algunos ejemplos de impulsos que podríamos darnos unos a otros?
- En una escala del uno al cinco, ¿qué tan bien crees que nuestra familia se da impulso unos a otros?
