MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

None of us would be going to church if we didn't believe that we should establish a beautiful relationship with Christ, who is "the way, the truth, and the life." I am sure that we are all convinced that our friendship with him is the path to the happiness we seek.

But hearing his words in today's Gospel should make us reflect: is there something in our lives that is holding back that friendship? In response to our Lord's renewed call to us today, it would be a good idea for each one of us to take some time during this week to make a spiritual inventory.

In his presence, reflect on the different aspects of our lives in order to see if anything is interfering with our discipleship. It could very well be a spiritual summer project. For example: we may reflect on three categories of things.

1. First, how am I using the material things in my life?

Remember, we can't take a U-Haul to heaven – all material goods will pass away sooner or later.

2. Second, how are the relationships (with God and neighbor) in my life?

Are there any unhealthy relationships in my life? If so, we need to ask God to give us the grace to cut them off.

3. Third, are there any timewasters in my life?

In the contemporary world, hobbies, social media and entertainment have become, in too many cases, idols, mini-religions. Time is too precious a gift to waste.

Let the Holy Spirit be your guide in this your discernment!

Thank you and have a Blessed Sunday!

MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

Ninguno de nosotros estaría yendo a la iglesia si no creyéramos que debemos establecer una hermosa relación con Cristo, quien es “el camino, la verdad y la vida”. Estoy seguro de que todos estamos convencidos de que nuestra amistad con él es el camino hacia la felicidad que buscamos.

Pero escuchar sus palabras en el Evangelio de hoy debería hacernos reflexionar: ¿hay algo en nuestra vida que frena esa amistad? En respuesta al llamado renovado de nuestro Señor hoy, sería una buena idea que cada uno de nosotros tome un tiempo durante esta semana para hacer un inventario espiritual.

En su presencia, reflexione sobre los diferentes aspectos de nuestra vida para ver si algo interfiere con nuestro discipulado. Podría muy bien ser un proyecto espiritual de verano. Por ejemplo: podemos reflexionar sobre tres categorías de cosas.

1. Primero, ¿cómo estoy usando las cosas materiales en mi vida?

Recuerde, no podemos llevar un U-Haul al cielo: todos los bienes materiales pasarán tarde o temprano.

2. Segundo, ¿cómo son las relaciones (con Dios y el prójimo) en mi vida?

¿Existen relaciones dañinas en mi vida? Si es así, debemos pedirle a Dios que nos dé la gracia de cortarlas.

3. Tercero, ¿hay alguna pérdida de tiempo en mi vida?

En el mundo contemporáneo, las aficiones, las redes sociales y el entretenimiento se han convertido, en demasiados casos, en ídolos, en minirreligiones. El tiempo es un regalo demasiado precioso para desperdiciarlo.

¡Deje que el Espíritu Santo sea su guía en este su discernimiento!

¡Gracias y que tengan un Bendecido Domingo!

FAMILY ENRICHMENT

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

“How close are you with your spouse and kids?”

Parents often assume we're closer to our kids than we actually are. It is easy to confuse a low conflict relationship with a close relationship. Mathew Kelly's book, "The Seven Levels of Intimacy" allows us to evaluate how close we really are to anyone, including our kids. The closeness with our kids is related to the level of Intimacy we have with them, that we regularly check on this.

- Social Cliches: asking, "How are you?" let others know that it is safe to be around them.
- Facts: sharing events of our day.
- Opinions: making it safe for others to share, what I think and feel.
- Hopes & Dreams: making it safe to share, what I hope, what I want to be.
- Feelings: feel safe to open up.
- Fears, Faults, Failures: feeling safe to come to you with my struggle.
- Personal Needs: feeling safe to openly discuss what I need.

We need to create Discipleship Discipline with our kids which can make it safe to make mistakes and encourage our kids to be open with all their needs. So that we can mentor them and not lecture them.

“¿Qué tan cerca estás de tu cónyuge y de tus hijos?”

Los padres a menudo asumen que estamos más cerca de nuestros hijos de lo que realmente estamos. Es fácil confundir una relación de bajo conflicto con una relación cercana. El libro de Mathew Kelly, "Los siete niveles de intimidad" nos permite evaluar qué tan cerca estamos realmente de alguien, incluidos nuestros hijos. La cercanía con nuestros hijos está relacionada con el nivel de Intimidad que tengamos con ellos, que comprobamos periódicamente al respecto.

- Clichés sociales: preguntando: "¿Cómo estás?" hágales saber a los demás que es seguro estar cerca de ellos.
- Factores: compartiendo eventos de nuestro día.
- Opiniones: haciéndolo seguro para que otros compartan lo que pienso y siento.
- Esperanzas y sueños: haciéndolo seguro para compartir, lo que espero, lo que quiero ser.
- Sentimientos: siéntete seguro para abrirte.
- Miedos, Faltas, Fracazos: sintiéndome seguro de acudir a ti con mi lucha.
- Necesidades personales: Sentirse seguro para discutir abiertamente lo que necesito.

Necesitamos crear una disciplina de discipulado con nuestros hijos que pueda hacer que sea seguro cometer errores y alentar a nuestros hijos a ser abiertos con todas sus necesidades. Para que podamos guiarlos y no sermonearlos.
