MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Sometimes we think that the saints were born with special saint-genes. But that's not true. Every saint was an ordinary human being just like us. The difference is that they understood God's greatness, and let their lives become instruments of that greatness.

Few people remember that St. Francis of Assisi participated in the fifth Crusade. He travelled to Egypt, where the Crusaders were trying to conquer one of the Muslim. St. Francis didn't fight with sword and spear. Instead, after the military effort got bogged down, he and another friar made their way to the enemy lines, dressed in his humble robe, weaponless, and singing Psalm 22: "Though I walk through a valley as dark as death, I shall fear no evil."

Thinking Francis was an ambassador sent to negotiate a truce, the sentries brought him to headquarters, where St. Francis explained that he wanted to speak to the Sultan about the Gospel. The Sultan received him and enjoyed the conversation so much that he invited Francis to stay with them. Francis said he would, if the Sultan would become a Christian. And to prove the superiority of the Christian religion, St. Francis offered to undergo a trial. "Heat a large oven," he suggested. "Your priests and I will get into it, and you can judge by what happens which of our two religions is more holy and true." The Sultan said that he didn't think his priests would climb into a hot oven.

So, St. Francis said, "Very well, I'll get in by myself. If I die, you can put it down to my sins; but if the divine power protects me, will you swear to recognize Christ as true God and Savior?" The Sultan would not, and so the oven-trial never happened. St. Francis wasn't a saint because he was super-smart or super-strong. St. Francis was a saint because he had learned to believe in and depend on the supernatural, all-powerful, smarts and strength of God himself. That's what we all are invited to do as well in our journey towards holiness in life.

On a different note, I would like to thank you for the generous gifts of many of you for the Adoration Chapel. We were able to receive around $20,000. Thank you all so much.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

A veces pensamos que los santos nacieron con genes especiales de santo. Pero eso no es cierto. Cada santo era un ser humano ordinario como nosotros. La diferencia es que entendieron la grandeza de Dios y dejaron que sus vidas se convirtieran en instrumentos de esa grandeza.

Pocas personas recuerdan que San Francisco de Asís participó en la quinta Cruzada. Viajó a Egipto, donde los cruzados intentaban conquistar uno de los bastiones musulmanes. San Francisco no luchó con espada y lanza. En cambio, después de que el esfuerzo militar se empantanó, él y otro fraile se dirigieron a las líneas enemigas, vestidos con su humilde túnica, sin armas, y cantando el Salmo 22: "Aunque ande por un valle oscuro como la muerte, no temeré ningún mal".

Pensando que Francisco era un embajador enviado para negociar una tregua, los centinelas lo llevaron al cuartel general, donde San Francisco le explicó que quería hablar con el sultán sobre el Evangelio. El sultán lo recibió y disfrutó tanto de la conversación que invitó a Francisco a quedarse con ellos. Francisco dijo que lo haría si el sultán se hiciera Cristiano. Y para probar la superioridad de la religión cristiana, San Francisco se ofreció a someterse a una prueba. "Calentar un horno grande", sugirió. "Tus sacerdotes y yo nos ocuparemos de eso, y puedes juzgar por lo que sucede cuál de nuestras dos religiones es más santa y verdadera". El sultán dijo que no creía que sus sacerdotes se metieran en un horno caliente.

Entonces, San Francisco dijo: "Muy bien, entraré solo. Si muero, puedes atribuirlo a mis pecados; pero si el poder divino me protege, jurarás reconocer a Cristo como verdadero Dios y Salvador?" El sultán no lo haría, por lo que el rastro del horno nunca sucedió. San Francisco no era un santo porque fuera superinteligente o superfuerte. San Francisco era un santo porque había aprendido a creer y depender de la sobrenaturaleza, la fuerza, inteligencia y fortaleza del mismo Dios. Eso es lo que todos estamos invitados a hacer también en nuestro camino hacia la santidad en la vida.

En una nota diferente, me gustaría agradecerles por las generosas donaciones de muchos de ustedes para la Capilla de Adoración. Pudimos recibir alrededor de $20,000. Muchas gracias a todos.

¡Que tengan un Bendecido Domingo!

FAMILY ENRICHMENT

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

“Family rules of life”

Saint Benedict formed these rules for his community, they can be helpful for our families; these rules can make us cheerful, generous in service to one another, attentive listening, humility, the rhythm of work and prayers and restriction of speech.

Rules:

- “They should each try to be the first to show respect to the other (Rom 12:10), supporting with the greatest patience one another’s weaknesses of body or behavior”.
- “No one is to pursue what he judges better for himself, but instead, what he judges better for someone else.”
- “What is not possible to us by nature, let us ask the Lord to supply by the help of his grace.
- “Obedience is a blessing to be shown by all, not only to the abbot but also to one another”.
- “Let everyone help as best he can with the work that has to be done.”
- “Let all the members serve one another with love.
- “All guests who present themselves are to be welcomed as Christ.”

Apply these rules in your family through Play, Talk, Listen and Pray. Please see next page.

“Reglas de vida familiar”

San Benito formó estas reglas para su comunidad, pueden ser útiles para nuestras familias; estas reglas pueden hacernos alegres, generosos en el servicio mutuo, la escucha atenta, la humildad, el ritmo del trabajo y la oración y la restricción de la palabra.

Reglas:

- “Cada uno procure ser el primero en mostrar respeto al otro (Rom 12,10), soportando con la mayor paciencia las debilidades corporales o de comportamiento de los demás”.
- “Nadie debe perseguir lo que juzga mejor para sí mismo, sino lo que juzga mejor para otro”.
- “Lo que no nos es posible por naturaleza, pidamos al Señor que lo supla con la ayuda de su gracia.
- “La obediencia es una bendición para todos, no sólo al abad sino también entre todos”.
- “Que todos ayuden lo mejor que puedan con el trabajo que hay que hacer”.
- “Let all the members serve one another with love.
- “Todos los invitados que se presenten deben ser recibidos como Cristo”.

Aplice estas reglas en su familia a través de Jugar, Hablar, Escuchar y Orar. Por favor vea la siguiente página.

FAMILY ENRICHMENT

PLAY: OUTDOOR FAMILY GAMES

Mid-summer is the perfect time for playing outside as a family. Here are some simple outdoor game ideas for kids ages 6 – 12:

- ❑ Sock tag. Roll up some old socks into balls. The person who is “it” throws the balls to tag the other players. Tagged players must freeze in place until another player steals one of the socks to free them.
- ❑ Buried treasure. Hide “treasure” (coins, a treat, or another object) somewhere in your yard, giving players clues for finding it.
- ❑ Random road trip. Take a walk or a bike ride with your kids, but let them choose which way to turn at each intersection.
- ❑ Nature scavenger hunt. Make up a list of items that might be found in your yard or on a walk: birds, plants, insects, rocks, and so on. For older kids, use a basic guide to local plants, birds, insects or rocks to make a themed scavenger hunt.

TALK: HOLD YOUR TONGUE!

“There are times when good words are to be left unsaid out of esteem for silence,” St. Benedict says in his Rule (Chapter 6: Restraint of Speech). While your family isn’t a Benedictine monastery (obviously), you might try following a slightly modified version: “There are times when good words are to be left unsaid out of esteem for others.”

This month, work on improving family conversations in two ways:

1. Avoid interrupting or talking over others who are speaking.
2. Make sure that everyone gets a chance to speak. When you notice someone is being left out, holding back from the good words you wanted to speak and inviting the other person to speak instead is a real act of love.

LISTENING WITH THE HEART

“Listen carefully ... with the ear of your heart.” These first words of the Rule of St. Benedict are key to Benedictine spirituality — and Benedictine hospitality, too. How well does your family practice “listening with the heart”?

This month, try this simple listening exercise. At the end of the day (or at the family table), give each person a chance to share something significant they heard someone else say during the day. For example: “This morning, Mom said she was nervous about her work meeting.” Be as specific and detailed as possible. Then, let the other person either affirm that she was heard or clarify what she was really saying. If you like, give points and prizes to the best listener.

PRAY: HOLY LISTENING

The Rule of St. Benedict reminds us that prayer is as much a matter of listening as it is about speaking. This month, practice silent “holy listening” during your prayer time.

Begin your prayer time the way the De LaSalle Christian Brothers do: “Let us remember we are in the holy presence of God.” Then observe a moment of silence before beginning your other prayers.

If that goes well, try practicing silent meditative or contemplative prayer during your family prayer time. For more guidance, consult your favorite Catholic prayer book, app, or podcast.

HOW TO HELP WHEN KIDS MESS UP

Do you ever find yourself thinking your kids should “just know” how to behave well? Well, it turns out good behavior is a learned skill that requires practice — and maybe a little parental coaching. Find out how with the “How to Help When Kids Mess Up” PDF download on the CatholicHOM app.
