OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

The Rosary is at heart a Christocentric prayer.

We are inviting your family, your group, or your ministry to offer a prayer of Rosary for thanksgiving, for healing, for peace, for special intentions and for a silent moment with Jesus through Mary.

Rosary prayer will be at the OLG Grotto at 5pm everyday except Saturdays will be at 4pm, from October 1st to 31st.

Please let the Parish Office know your prayer date.

We sit at the school of Mary to contemplate and to experience the depths of Christ's love. Through the Rosary, the faithful receive abundant grace from the intercession of the Mother of the Redeemer. Rosarium Virginis Mariae, The Apostolic Letter of John Paul II, 2002

OCTUBRE ES EL MES DEL SANTO ROSARIO

El Rosario es en el fondo una oración Cristocéntrica.

Estamos invitando a su familia, su grupo o su ministerio a ofrecer un Rosario a las 5pm para acción de gracias, por sanación, por la paz, por intenciones especiales y por un momento de silencio con Jesús a través de María.

El rezo del Rosario será en el Area Devocional todos los días a las 5pm, excepto los sábados será a las 4pm del 1 al 31 de octubre.

Por favor informe a la Oficina Parroquial la fecha que está disponible.

Public Square Rosary Crusade

Join the 2023 public Rosary rally on Saturday October 14 by the devotional area. Praying of the rosary will begin promptly at noon.

Sponsored by the Legion of Mary & Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish

The One common characteristic of many natural religions that human beings have developed throughout history is something called anthropomorphism. This is a fancy word for saying that without the help of God's own revelation, people have a tendency to think that God (or the gods, if we're talking about paganism and polytheism) is just like us, only bigger and stronger.

We are all familiar with stories from ancient Greece, in which the false gods got into arguments, tried to trick each other, committed adultery - it was as if they were just like human beings, only immortal. Christianity put an end to anthropomorphism-now we know that although human beings are made in the image of God, God is not made in the image of man.

God is unlimited in his knowledge, goodness, wisdom, power-he's not just bigger and stronger than us, he is on a wholly different level altogether. And yet, our fallen human nature still has a tendency to think in terms of anthropomorphism. One anthropomorphic mistake we often make is to think that God loses his patience with us, just as we lose patience with other people (or with ourselves).

We think that since we run out of mercy, that giving mercy takes a huge effort for us, well then, it must be that way for God too. Not at all. God's mercy is not like a giant eye-dropper in heaven, reluctantly and jealously dispensing forgiveness and love in little bits, drip by drip. That's how we do it. But God's mercy is more like a water fall, a rushing mountain spring, an ever-flowing fountain... The only thing that will make us die of thirst is our self-centered refusal to drink from this fountain-like the stewards in today's parable.

God's mercy and goodness is always ready to come into our lives, always - we just have to open the door.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Una característica común de muchas religiones naturales que el ser humano ha desarrollado a lo largo de la historia es algo llamado antropomorfismo. Esta es una palabra elegante para decir que sin la ayuda de la propia revelación de Dios, la gente tiende a pensar que Dios (o los dioses, si hablamos de paganismo y politeísmo) es como nosotros, sólo que más grande y más fuerte.

Todos conocemos historias de la antigua Grecia en las que los dioses falsos se metían en discusiones, intentaban engañarse unos a otros, cometían adulterio; era como si fueran iguales que los seres humanos, sólo que inmortales. El cristianismo puso fin al antropomorfismo: ahora sabemos que aunque los seres humanos están hechos a imagen de Dios, Dios no está hecho a imagen del hombre.

Dios es ilimitado en su conocimiento, bondad, sabiduría y poder; no sólo es más grande y más fuerte que nosotros, está en un nivel completamente diferente. Y, sin embargo, nuestra naturaleza humana caída todavía tiene tendencia a pensar en términos de antropomorfismo. Un error antropomórfico que cometemos a menudo es pensar que Dios pierde la paciencia con nosotros, así como nosotros perdemos la paciencia con otras personas (o con nosotros mismos).

Pensamos que como nos quedamos sin misericordia, dar misericordia nos cuesta un esfuerzo enorme, pues entonces, así debe ser para Dios también. Para nada. La misericordia de Dios no es como un gotero gigante en el cielo, que de mala gana y con celo dispensa perdón y amor en poquitos, gota a gota. Así es cómo lo hacemos. Pero la misericordia de Dios se parece más a una caída de agua, a un manantial de montaña que corre, a una fuente que siempre fluye... Lo único que nos hará morir de sed es nuestro egocentrismo de negarse a beber de esta fuente, como los mayordomos de la parábola de hoy.

La misericordia y la bondad de Dios siempre están listas para entrar en nuestras vidas, siempre, sólo tenemos que abrir la puerta.

¡Que tengan un Bendecido Domingo!

“Do You feel that your kids don’t want to talk to you?”

Just as plants grow better when given sun, water, and fertilizer, so also the preteens and teens succeed when they feel truly listened to by their parents. Some kids need more encouragement than others. But you should never make the mistake of thinking that your preteen’s struggle to open-up means they don’t want to talk with you. You should spend 80 to 90 percent more time listening to your kids talking to you than you talk to them.

This requires: Having regular one-on-one time.

Asking good questions.

Letting them lead you.

Preteens and Teens need time to figure out what they want to say and how to say it. They need time to focus on you, their feelings, and the words they need to use. They can’t do this in fifteen minutes in your car on the way to practice when they are worried about how they are going to perform. Pope Francis encouraged parents to “waste time” with their kids. Relationships require regular investment of time. The reality is who you treasure is represented by who you invest your time in. Your kids know whether you really treasure them or not.

Do you have any questions, check Catholic.Hom

“¿Sientes que tus hijos no quieren hablar contigo?”

Así como las plantas crecen mejor cuando se les da sol, agua y fertilizantes, los preadolescentes y adolescentes también tienen éxito cuando se sienten verdaderamente escuchados por sus padres. Algunos niños necesitan más estímulo que otros. Pero nunca debes cometer el error de pensar que la lucha de tu preadolescente por abrirse significa que no quiere hablar contigo. Debería dedicar entre un 80 y un 90 por ciento más de tiempo a escuchar a sus hijos hablar con usted que a ellos.

Esto requiere: Tener un tiempo individual regular.

Hacer buenas preguntas.

Dejar que te guíen.

Los preadolescentes y los adolescentes necesitan tiempo para descubrir qué quieren decir y cómo decirlo. Necesitan tiempo para concentrarse en usted, en sus sentimientos y en las palabras que deben utilizar. No pueden hacer esto en quince minutos en su automóvil de camino a la práctica cuando están preocupados por su desempeño. El Papa Francisco alentó a los padres a “perder el tiempo” con sus hijos. Las relaciones requieren una inversión regular de tiempo. La realidad es que a quién valoras está representado por en quién inviertes tu tiempo. Tus hijos saben si realmente los valoras o no.
