During the Synod of Bishops in Rome presided by then Pope Benedict XVI, in October 2008, one of the Bishops shared this beautiful story of one of his priests. He explained that in Latvia, the northern European country he is from, the Soviet communists forcibly imposed their communist rule after World War II. Part of their policy was the systemic elimination of all religion. So, they arrested Protestant pastors, as well as Catholic priests and bishops, intimidated them, bribed them, and did everything they could to cut off the flow of grace.

They also made it a crime to possess the Bible, which was considered an anti-Communist (and therefore treasonous) book. One priest who was arrested for possessing the Bible was named Viktors. When they arrested him, the Soviet agents threw the Holy Scriptures on the floor, right in front of the priest. Then they ordered the priest to step on it as a sign of scorn for the Christian faith. But the priest refused. Instead, he knelt down and kissed the sacred book. For doing this, he was condemned to 10 years of hard labor in Siberia.

Ten years later, when Fr. Viktors returned to his parish and celebrated the holy Mass, he read the Gospel. Then he held it up and said, "The Word of God!" The parishioners cried and thanked God in the silence of their hearts – but they did not dare to applaud him, because that would be taken as another provocation.

That priest understood that the only lasting joy in life, the only thing worth living for, is friendship with Jesus Christ, which is nourished by God's inspired Word, and nothing was going to make him compromise that.

Have a Blessed Advent Sunday!

Fr. Joy Kumarthusseril, mf

Pastor

p.s.: On a different note, I would like to extend my most sincere thanks and appreciation to all who worked so hard to make the Feast of our Patron a real success. Thanks to all who were involved in various ways. Special thanks to Fr. Gabriel and the food committee and to the Environment team who made the Church and premises look so beautiful. My most sincere Thanks to all volunteers. May the Blessed Mother shower her abundance blessing upon us all.

Durante el Sínodo de los Obispos en Roma presidido por el entonces Papa Benedicto XVI, en octubre de 2008, uno de los Obispos compartió esta hermosa historia de uno de sus sacerdotes. Explicó que en Letonia, el país del norte de Europa de donde es originario, los comunistas soviéticos impusieron por la fuerza su gobierno comunista después de la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Parte de su política fue la eliminación sistémica de toda religión. Entonces arrestaron a pastores protestantes, así como a sacerdotes y obispos católicos, los intimidaron, los sobornaron e hicieron todo lo posible para cortar el flujo de la gracia.

También hicieron como delito la posesión de la Biblia, que se consideraba un libro anticomunista (y por tanto traidor). Un sacerdote que fue arrestado por posesión de la Biblia se llamaba Viktors. Cuando lo arrestaron, los agentes soviéticos arrojaron las Sagradas Escrituras al suelo, justo delante del sacerdote. Luego ordenaron al sacerdote que lo pisara en señal de desprecio por la fe cristiana. Pero el sacerdote se negó. En cambio, se arrodilló y besó el libro sagrado. Por ello fue condenado a 10 años de trabajos forzados en Siberia.

Diez años después, cuando el Padre Viktors regresó a su parroquia y celebró la santa Misa, leyó el Evangelio. Luego lo levantó y dijo: "¡La Palabra de Dios!" Los feligreses lloraron y agradecieron a Dios en el silencio de sus corazones, pero no se atrevieron a aplaudirlo porque sería tomado como una provocación más.

Ese sacerdote entendió que la única alegría duradera en la vida, lo único por lo que vale la pena vivir, es la amistad con Jesucristo, que se nutre de la Palabra inspirada de Dios, y nada iba a hacerle cambiar eso.

¡Que tengan un bendecido Domingo de Adviento!

Fr. Joy Kumarthusseril, mf

Párroco

P.D.: Por otra parte, me gustaría extender mi más sincero agradecimiento y reconocimiento a todos los que trabajaron tan duro para hacer de Nuestra Fiesta Patronal un verdadero éxito. Gracias a todos los que participaron de diversas maneras. Un agradecimiento especial al Padre Gabriel y al comité de comida y al equipo de Medio Ambiente que hicieron que la Iglesia tanto por dentro y por fuera lucieran tan hermosa. Mi más sincero agradecimiento a todos los voluntarios. Que la Santísima Madre derrame abundancia de bendiciones sobre todos nosotros.

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

Have you talked to your kids about Santa?

Kids can ask whether Santa is real or not? We could have an issue with our kids when it comes to Santa. As Parents we could be confused whether to allow our children to grow in this tradition or not? Your little kids will believe that Santa brings them presents. Your grown-up kids will not believe it. That is okay. Make sure that Santa doesn't overshadow Jesus. Santa is part of Christmas, but he does not dominate it or overshadows 'the reason for the season'.

The story of Santa Claus can be traced back hundreds of years to a monk named St. Nicholas. It is believed that Nicholas was born sometime around A.D. 280 in Patara, near Myra in modern-day Turkey. Much admired for his piety and kindness, St. Nicholas became the subject of many legends. It is said that he gave away all his inherited wealth and traveled to the countryside helping the poor and sick. One of the best-known St. Nicholas stories is the time he saved three poor sisters from being sold into slavery or prostitution by their father by providing them with a dowry so that they could be married.

¿Has hablado con tus hijos sobre santa?

Los niños pueden preguntar si Santa es real o no. Podríamos tener un problema con nuestros hijos cuando se trata de Santa. Como padres, ¿podríamos estar confundidos sobre si debemos permitir que nuestros hijos crezcan en esta tradición o no? Tus pequeños creerán que Santa les trae regalos. Tus hijos mayores no lo creerán. Eso está bien. Asegúrate de que Santa no opaque a Jesús. Papá Noel es parte de la Navidad, pero no la domina ni opaca “el motivo de la temporada”.

La historia de Papá Noel se remonta a cientos de años, hasta un monje llamado San Nicolás. Se cree que Nicolás nació alrededor del año 280 D.C. en Patara, cerca de Myra, en la actual Turquía. Muy admirado por su piedad y bondad, San Nicolás se convirtió en objeto de muchas leyendas. Se dice que regaló toda su riqueza heredada y viajó al campo ayudando a los pobres y enfermos. Una de las historias más conocidas de San Nicolás es la vez que salvó a tres hermanas pobres de ser vendidas como esclavas o prostitutas por su padre proporcionándoles una dote para que pudieran casarse.
