When we find ourselves discouraged, frustrated, or angered by difficulties, we have a choice. We can either stay tuned to our feelings of self-pity, or we can change the channel and tune into God's perspective by thinking of Christ: his sufferings on the cross, his flight to Egypt with Mary and Joseph, the trials his saints and martyrs have endured through the centuries.

Tuning into God's point of view doesn't take away the difficulty, but it does give it meaning. None of the Church's canonized saints was born a saint. They were all normal people, like us. They inherited the same fallen human nature. They received the same sacraments and doctrine. They also received the same call to holiness, to live in a truly intimate, dynamic friendship with Jesus Christ.

But they didn't live sheltered lives - they confronted hardships just like ours. In having to face daily trials, Joseph and Mary weren't the exception. St Patrick was kidnapped and sold into slavery. St Elizabeth of Hungary almost went insane when her husband died of malaria just a few years after their marriage. St Padre Pio of Pietrelcina was criticized by his fellow monks, misunderstood by his superiors, and even forbidden by the Vatican from celebrating Mass in public. St Thomas More, a layman and a lawyer, was thrown out of his job by the king, then imprisoned, interrogated, and forbidden from seeing his family. When he still refused to give up his allegiance to Christ, they chopped off his head. St Rita of Cascia wanted to become a nun, but her parents forced her (at the age of 12) to marry a wealthy but violent and abusive local businessman. She suffered his infidelities and abuses for 18 years before he repented on his deathbed.

God didn't save these saints from suffering, just as he didn't save his own Son from the cross - rather, God works through the cross. When life throws big or little hardships at us, it is not because God has forgotten us. The daily trials are opportunities for us to exercise our faith, to grow into mature, wise, and deeply joyful Christians - to move forward on the road that will make us saints. Would it not be great to keep that as our New Year resolution?

Wish you all a Happy New Year!

December 30, 2023 - January 5, 2024

Cuando nos encontramos desanimados, frustrados o enojados por las dificultades, tenemos una opción. Podemos permanecer atentos a nuestros sentimientos de autocompasión o podemos cambiar de canal y sintonizarnos con la perspectiva de Dios pensando en Cristo: sus sufrimientos en la cruz, su huida a Egipto con María y José, las pruebas que sus santos y mártires han soportado a través de los siglos.

El sintonizarnos con el punto de vista de Dios no elimina la dificultad, pero sí le da significado. Ninguno de los santos canonizados de la Iglesia nació santo. Todos eran personas normales, como nosotros. Heredaron la misma naturaleza humana caída. Recibieron los mismos sacramentos y doctrina. También recibieron el mismo llamado a la santidad, a vivir en una amistad verdaderamente íntima y dinámica con Jesucristo.

Pero no vivieron vidas protegidas: enfrentaron dificultades como las nuestras. Al tener que afrontar pruebas diarias, José y María no fueron la excepción. San Patricio fue secuestrado y vendido como esclavo. Santa Isabel de Hungría casi se volvió loca cuando su marido murió de malaria pocos años después de su matrimonio. San Padre Pío de Pietrelcina fue criticado por sus compañeros monjes, incomprendido por sus superiores e incluso el Vaticano le prohibió celebrar Misa en público. Santo Tomás Moro, laico y abogado, fue despedido de su trabajo por el rey, luego encarcelado, interrogado y se le prohibió ver a su familia. Cuando todavía se negaba a renunciar a su lealtad a Cristo, le cortaron la cabeza. Santa Rita de Casia quería ser monja, pero sus padres la obligaron (a la edad de 12 años) a casarse con un hombre de negocios local rico pero violento y abusivo. Ella sufrió sus infidelidades y abusos durante 18 años antes de que él se arrepintiera en su lecho de muerte.

Dios no salvó a estos santos del sufrimiento, así como no salvó a su propio Hijo de la cruz; más bien, Dios obra a través de la cruz. Cuando la vida nos arroja dificultades, grandes o pequeñas, no es porque Dios nos haya olvidado. Las pruebas diarias son oportunidades para que ejercitemos nuestra fe, para convertirnos en cristianos maduros, sabios y profundamente gozosos, para avanzar en el camino que nos hará santos. ¿No sería fantástico mantener esto como nuestra resolución de Año Nuevo?

¡Les deseo a todos un Feliz Año Nuevo!

“Family First” / “La Familia Primero”

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, MF

A more Peaceful Family for Christmas

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. A great model for our families. Today we can look at our family and see how we have encouraged our family members to generously serve each other and look for little ways our family can be a blessing to others. Look for ways to make other’s day a little easier and more pleasant, and to extend the mission of our family to the world. This can be as simple as asking everyday after your brief morning prayer time, “What’s one small thing each of us can do today to try to take better care of each other? What’s one small thing each of us could be a blessing to the people we meet today? Even asking the question to help us remember our mission to be God’s blessing to others.

- * What are some little ways you emphasize the importance of taking care of each other at home?
- * Do you have little ways your family tries to serve others?
- * Is there something more you would like to do?
- * Is there anything getting in the way of your family taking care of each other or serving each other the way you would like to?

Una familia más tranquila para Navidad

Este domingo celebramos la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José. Un gran modelo para nuestras familias. Hoy podemos mirar a nuestra familia y ver cómo hemos alentado a los miembros de nuestra familia a servirse generosamente unos a otros y buscar pequeñas formas en que nuestra familia pueda ser una bendición para los demás. Buscar maneras de hacer que el día de los demás sea un poco más fácil y placentero, y de extender la misión de nuestra familia al mundo. Esto puede ser tan simple como preguntar todos los días después de su breve tiempo de oración matutina: “¿Qué es una pequeña cosa que cada uno de nosotros puede hacer hoy para tratar de cuidarnos mejor unos a otros? ¿Qué pequeña cosa cada uno de nosotros podría ser una bendición para las personas que conocemos hoy? Incluso hacer la pregunta para ayudarnos a recordar nuestra misión de ser la bendición de Dios para los demás.

- * ¿Cuáles son algunas pequeñas formas en las que enfatizas la importancia de cuidarnos unos a otros en casa?
- * ¿Tiene pequeñas formas en que su familia intenta servir a los demás?
- * ¿Hay algo más que te gustaría hacer?
- * ¿Hay algo que se interponga en el camino de que su familia se cuide unos a otros o se sirvan unos a otros como a ustedes les gustaría?

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
in you we contemplate the splendour of true love;
to you we turn with trust.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic churches.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
may families never again experience violence,
rejection and division;
may all who have been hurt or scandalized
find ready comfort and healing.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
make us once more mindful of the sacredness and
inviolability of the family,
and its beauty in God's plan.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
Graciously hear our prayer. Amen.

Prayer to the Holy Family
