Pastors Message,

Epiphany is the first manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, represented by the Three Magi coming from distant lands. It presents a realization that the Messiah was not just for the Jews, but also for the Gentiles. The Three Magi themselves coming to pay homage to a newborn king is also an epiphany: it gave a sudden insight into the deeper meaning of the Messiah.

God is reminding us today that we can count on him. He is begging us to trust him, to follow him just as the Wise Men followed the star. And if we do, we, like the Wise Men, will "be overjoyed", filled with true Christian joy.

Christian joy is like the deep parts of the ocean. The ocean reaches depths of more than 36,000 feet, but only the top hundred feet are affected by even the most violent storms. God's faithfulness is as constant and dependable as those deep parts of the ocean. The heart that dwells in those depths can stay joyful even in the middle of life's hurricanes.

About a year before he died, John Paul II was already in visibly declining health. He couldn't move himself around, he couldn't speak clearly - he was an icon of pain and suffering. Everyone knew he wouldn't be with us much longer. An American bishop visited him about this time, for the official five-year updates that every bishop gives to the Pope.

At the end of their meeting, the bishop, with a sad look in his eyes, said to the Pope: "Holy Father, it saddens me to think that this is probably the last time I will see you." John Paul II looked at him and said with a smile, "O really, Your Excellency? I didn't know you were having health issues." This is the kind of joy God wants to give us; a deep, strong, meaningful joy that can put our sufferings in their proper perspective.

Because God is faithful, we know that whatever happens, he will continue to guide our lives to their fulfillment, even during those times when, for short periods or long ones, the star goes behind a cloud.

Have a Blessed Feast of Epiphany!

Fr. Joy Kumarthusseril, mf

P.S. Thank you one and all for making our celebration of Christmas beautiful and meaningful. As you read this note I will be in India for a wedding. Please keep me in your prayers.

Mensaje del Pastor,

La Epifanía es la primera manifestación de Cristo a los gentiles, representada por los tres reyes magos que venían de tierras lejanas. Presenta una realización de que el Mesías no vino solo para los judíos sino también para los gentiles. Los tres Reyes Magos que vienen a rendir homenaje al rey recién nacido es también una epifanía: dio una visión repentina del significado más profundo del Mesías.

Dios nos está recordando en este día que podemos contar con Él . Él nos implora que confiemos en El, que lo sigamos de la misma manera como los Reyes Magos siguieron la estrella. Y si lo hacemos, nosotros, como los Reyes Magos, estaremos "llenos" con la verdadera alegría Cristiana.

La alegría Cristiana es como las partes profundas del océano. El océano alcanza profundidades de hasta más de 36,000 pies, pero sólo los cien pies de arriba son afectados por tormentas, incluso las más violentas. La fidelidad de Dios es constante y confiable como esas partes más profundas del océano. El corazón que habita en esas profundidades puede permanecer alegre aun en medio de los huracanes de la vida.

Aproximadamente un año antes de que Juan Pablo II muriera, su salud ya estaba visiblemente disminuyendo. No podía moverse por sí mismo, no podía hablar claramente - él era un ícono del dolor y del sufrimiento. Todos sabían que ya no iba a estar con nosotros por mucho tiempo. Un obispo de América, aproximadamente por estos tiempos, visitó al Papa para el informe oficial que cada obispo da al Papa cada cinco años. Al final de la reunión, el obispo, con una mirada triste le dijo al Papa: "Santo Padre, me entristece que posiblemente esta sea la última vez que lo voy a ver." Juan Pablo II lo miró y le dijo con una sonrisa, "¿De verdad su excelencia? No sabía que tuviera problemas de salud." Esta es la clase de alegría que Dios quiere darnos; profunda, fuerte, gozo significativo que puede poner nuestros sufrimientos en su propia perspectiva.

Porque Dios es fiel, sabemos que cualquier cosa que pase, El continuará guiando nuestras vidas hasta su cumplimiento, aun en esos tiempos, cortos y prolongados en que parece que la estrella se oculta detrás de una nube.

¡Tengan una Bendecida Fiesta de la Epifanía!

Padre Joy Kumarthusseril, mf

P.D. Gracias a todos por hacer nuestra celebración de Navidad hermosa y significativa. Mientras leen este mensaje, yo voy a estar en India para una Boda. Por favor, manténganme en sus oraciones.

A los Grupos Devocionales o Feligreses que usan la Iglesia para Actividades Devocionales.

Hemos estado notando que hay muchas manchas de cera de velas en los escalones del altar. Los voluntarios tratan de remover esas manchas casi todas las mañanas. Recuerden que No están permitidas las VELAS ENCENDIDAS dentro de la Iglesia, a excepción del Cirio Pascual y las velas del altar por motivos de seguridad y disposiciones de la Diócesis.

Cuando lo necesiten realmente para actividades devocionales, les sugerimos que usen las velas operadas con baterías. Gracias por su cooperación.
