Pastors Message,

In today's second reading St Paul uses a very important word. "HOLY" in Greek "hagios", which literally means "set apart." In ancient times it referred to anything especially reserved for God's use, and therefore holding a special reverence and beauty - like the ancient churches of Europe. The streets of Rome today are just like the streets of any big, modern city: full of noise, traffic, grime, crude advertisements, and more noise, traffic, and grime.

But as you're walking along, suddenly you come out of a narrow alley and into a large plaza, and a shining marble facade rises up in front of you - noble, majestic, and mysteriously attractive. As you enter the little wooden door on the side, the noise, traffic, grime, and crude atmosphere fade away. You are suddenly surrounded by strength, order, and beauty. Your soul is exhilarated by the clean aroma of incense and the comforting silence of prayer, respect, and reverence. The exquisite statues, pillars, paintings, and mosaics inspire and humble you. And as you gaze around, gradually your eyes are drawn to the focal point of it all - the tabernacle, the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

The mature, holy Christian is like that. Our world is full of noise and corruption and frenetic activity - and then you meet a Christian, and it's like seeing the beautiful marble façade rise out of the grime. Here is someone different - someone simple, noble, inspiring, mysteriously attractive. And you feel yourself drawn to them. As you get to know them, you see a beautiful harmony of virtues - self-control, consideration, faith and hope, humility, wisdom... And eventually you discover their source - Jesus Christ.

This is holiness and we are called to. We are God's living Temples, and God wants to make us into beautiful, inspiring, and lasting monuments to his glory.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Fr. Joy Kumarthusseril

Mensaje del Pastor,

En la segunda lectura del día de hoy, San Pablo usa una palabra muy importante. "SANTO" en griego "hagios", que literalmente significa "elegido." En los tiempos antiguos se refería a algo especial reservado para el uso de Dios, y por lo tanto tiene una belleza y reverencia especial - como en las Iglesia antiguas de Europa. Las calles de Roma en la actualidad son como las calles de cualquier ciudad grande y moderna: llenas de ruido, tráfico, suciedad y crudos anuncios y más ruido, tráfico y suciedad.

Pero al ir caminando, de repente sales de un callejón estrecho a una amplia plaza, y una fachada de mármol brillante se eleva frente a ti - noble, majestuosa y misteriosamente atractiva. Al entrar por la pequeña puerta de madera lateral, el ruido, el tráfico, y la cruda atmósfera se desvanece. Repentinamente te encuentras rodeado por un extraño olor y belleza. Tu alma se emociona limpio el aroma del incienso y el respeto y reverencia de la oración. Las exquisitas estatuas, pilares, pinturas y mosaicos te inspiran y te hacen humilde. Y al mirar a tu rededor, gradualmente tus ojos te llevan al punto más importante de todos - el tabernáculo, la presencia real de Jesucristo en la Eucaristía.

El santo cristiano maduro es así. Nuestro mundo está lleno de ruido, corrupción y actividad frenética - y entonces te encuentras con un cristiano y es como ver la hermosa fachada de mármol saliendo de la suciedad. Aquí al alguien diferente - alguien simple, noble, inspirando y misteriosamente atractivo. Y te sientes atraído por ellos. A medida que los conoces ves una hermosa armonía de virtudes - autocontrol, consideración fe y esperanza, humildad y sabiduría... Y eventualmente descubres la fuente - Jesucristo.

Esto es santidad y a eso hemos sido llamados. Somos Templos vivientes de Dios y Dios quiere hacernos monumentos hermosos, inspiradores y duraderos para su gloria.

¡Tengan un bendecido domingo!

Padre Joy Kumarthusseril
