NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Starting this week, would like to share with you Saints, blessed and venerables whose lives were ordered around the Eucharist. Their Eucharistic faith is a gift to all of us. "Really partaking of the body of the Lord in the breaking of the Eucharistic bread, we are taken up into communion with Him and with one another. "LUMEN GENTIUM, NO. 7

Known for her heroic works of charity among "the poorest of the poor," Mother Teresa often remarked that she and her sisters could not carry out their mission without daily, regular Eucharistic adoration. This simple, humble woman known to give her all for those on the margins and in most need, recognized that it was Christ who strengthened her, and needed to begin and end the day in adoration of his Eucharistic presence. It bore great fruit in her life, as she once remarked: "It has brought us so close to each other. We love each other better, but I think we love the poor with greater and deeper faith and love."

"Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to that Adoration." — St. Teresa of Calcutta

AVIVAMIENTO EUCARISTICO NACIONAL

A partir de esta semana, quisiera compartir con ustedes Santos, Beatos y Venerables cuyas vidas se ordenaron en torno a la Eucaristía. Su fe eucarística es un regalo para todos nosotros. "Participando realmente del cuerpo del Señor en la fracción del pan eucarístico, somos elevados a la comunión con Él y entre nosotros. " LUMEN GENTIUM, No. 7

Conocida por sus heroicas obras de caridad entre "los más pobres de los pobres", la Madre Teresa a menudo comentaba que ella y sus hermanas no podrían llevar a cabo su misión sin la adoración Eucarística diaria y regular. Esta mujer sencilla, humilde, conocida por darlo todo por los más marginados y necesitados, reconoció que era Cristo quien la fortalecía y necesitaba comenzar y terminar el día en adoración de su presencia Eucarística. Dio grandes frutos en su vida, como comentó una vez: "Nos ha acercado tanto. Nos amamos más, pero creo que amamos a los pobres con mayor y más profunda fe y amor".

"Jesús se ha hecho a sí mismo el Pan de Vida para darnos vida. Noche y día, Él está allí. Si de verdad quieres crecer en el amor, vuelve a la Eucaristía, vuelve a esa Adoración". — Santa Teresa de Calcuta

Message from the Pastor

The very first thing any priest has ever done immediately after his ordination to priesthood is to celebrate the Eucharist itself. After all, the call to priesthood is intrinsically related to the institution of the Holy Eucharist and Priesthood on Holy Thursday. Since the institution of the Eucharist, it had been the very font and source of the Christian life. It was around the Eucharistic table, the apostles gathered, then and we continue to gather now. How beautiful are the words of St. Augustine when he says: "Behold the mystery of your salvation laid out for you; behold what you are, become what you receive." Becoming what we receive – that's what has been happening since the very first Eucharist. However, the understanding about the real presence of Christ has become a great challenge for many to accept.

To help us with this, Seeking to rekindle devotion to the Eucharist, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops voted to launch an ambitious, three-year revival initiative, culminating with a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis from July 17-24 in 2024.

This initiative is to renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. As we prepare for that great event on a parish level, we already had launched and celebrated some key moments in preparation for the National Eucharistic Revival (like the Corpus Christi procession, Monthly 24-hour adoration etc.) and we are committed to intensify every effort to launch other events like the Advent "Mercy and Healing Nights of Adoration and Confession." Lenten catechetical resources and Adoration opportunities. Eucharist based, family-oriented catechesis and so on.

I would like to invite the Parish Pastoral Council, and the various parish ministries to come up with other initiatives to promote this revival at a parish level. If anyone has any specific idea, please feel free to share with me or with any member of the Parish Pastoral Council.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Mensaje del Párroco

Lo primero que ha hecho un sacerdote inmediatamente después de su ordenación sacerdotal es celebrar la Eucaristía misma. Después de todo, la llamada al sacerdocio está intrínsecamente relacionada con la institución de la Sagrada Eucaristía y el Sacerdocio del Jueves Santo. Desde la institución de la Eucaristía, ha sido fuente y manantial mismo de la vida cristiana. Fue alrededor de la mesa eucarística, se reunieron los apóstoles, entonces y nos seguimos reuniendo ahora. Qué hermosas son las palabras de San Agustín cuando dice: "He aquí el misterio de nuestra salvación que se nos presenta; mira lo que eres, conviértete en lo que recibes". Convertirse en lo que recibimos: eso es lo que ha estado sucediendo desde la primera Eucaristía. Sin embargo, la comprensión de la presencia real de Cristo se ha convertido en un gran desafío para muchos.

Para ayudarnos con esto, buscando reavivar la devoción a la Eucaristía, la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos votó para lanzar una ambiciosa iniciativa de reactivación de tres años, que culminará con un Congreso Eucarístico Nacional en Indianápolis del 17 al 24 de julio de 2024.

Esta iniciativa es para renovar la Iglesia encendiendo una relación viva con el Señor Jesucristo en la Sagrada Eucaristía. Mientras nos preparamos para ese gran evento a nivel parroquial, ya habíamos lanzado y celebrado algunos momentos clave en preparación para el Avivamiento Eucarístico Nacional (como la procesión de Corpus Christi, la adoración mensual de 24 horas, etc.) y estamos comprometidos a intensificar cada esfuerzo para lanzar otros eventos como las "Noches de Misericordia y Sanación de Adoración y Confesión" de Adviento. Recursos catequéticos de Cuaresma y oportunidades de Adoración. Catequesis basada en la Eucaristía, orientada a la familia, etc.

Me gustaría invitar al Consejo Pastoral Parroquial y a los diversos ministerios parroquiales a presentar otras iniciativas para promover este avivamiento a nivel parroquial. Si alguien tiene alguna idea específica, no dude en compartirla conmigo o con cualquier miembro del Consejo Pastoral Parroquial.

¡ Que tengan un bendecido Domingo !

Saint of the Week/Santo de la Semana

by Fr. Gabriel Augustine, mf

August 4, Saint John Maria Vianney

He was born May 8, 1786, in Dardilly, France. At 13, made his first communion, at 20, left the family farm to go and study. He struggled in his studies, particularly with Latin. In 1809, John was recruited into Napoleon Bonaparte's armies. Two days later, he fell ill and left it and returned to Écully to continue his studies. In 1815, he was ordained a Deacon and a Priest and was appointed as Assistant Priest to Fr. Balley in Écully, and later appointed as a Parish Priest of the Ars. He realized that the Parishioners were ignorant and indifferent of faith because of the French Revolution. Many danced, drank and worked in their fields on Sundays. He spent much time in confession and delivered homilies against their indifferent faith and dance. If parishioners did not give up dancing, he refused them absolution. He spent 11-12 hours each day at the confessional. Within 30 years, he received up to 20,000 pilgrims each year. Four times he wanted to leave Ars to become a monk and decided at last not to do so. After his death he left behind a legacy of faith.

Agosto 4, San Juan Maria Vianney

Nació el 8 de Mayo de 1786, en Dardilly, Francia. A los 13 hizo su primera comunión, a los 20 dejó la finca familiar para ir a estudiar. Luchó en sus estudios, particularmente con el latín. En 1809, John fue reclutado por los ejércitos de Napoleón Bonaparte. Dos días después, enfermó y lo dejó y regresó a Écully para continuar sus estudios. En 1815, fue ordenado diácono y presbítero y fue nombrado sacerdote asistente del Padre Balley en Écully, y posteriormente nombrado párroco de Ars. Se dio cuenta de que los feligreses eran ignorantes e indiferentes a la fe debido a la Revolución Francesa. Muchos bailaban, bebían y trabajaban en sus campos los domingos. Pasó mucho tiempo en confesión y pronunció homilías contra su indiferente fe y danza. Si los feligreses no dejaban de bailar, les negaba la absolución. Pasaba de 11 a 12 horas cada día en el confesionario. En 30 años, recibió hasta 20.000 peregrinos cada año. Cuatro veces quiso dejar Ars para hacerse monje y finalmente decidió no hacerlo. Después de su muerte dejó un legado de fe.
