Pastors Message,

Prophet Jeremiah lived at a tumultuous time in Israel's history, right around 600 BC. The northern half of Israel had recently been conquered by Assyria, but the small, southern part of the country, Judah, where Jerusalem was located and where Jeremiah lived, was still free when Jeremiah was born.

But it was located right between two powerful empires that were trying to conquer the whole area: Egypt in the south and Babylon in the north. Jeremiah's mission in life was to be a prophet, to constantly remind the people and rulers of Judah to trust in God. If they obeyed God's commandments and instructions, God would protect them. Unfortunately, neither the leaders nor the people wanted to hear that.

Instead, they wanted to take matters into their own hands, fight their own battles, and arrange their own peace treaties. The one thing they didn't want to do was to depend on and obey God. Every time the King of Judah asked Jeremiah for guidance, Jeremiah would pray, receive instructions, and inform the King - and then the King would do the exact opposite. And then God would ask Jeremiah to issue warnings, calling the people to repentance. But they wouldn't repent. So eventually Judah was conquered by Babylon, Jerusalem was obliterated, and the Jews were taken into exile. Through it all, Jeremiah was the despised scapegoat. They spread lies about him, mocked him, burned his writings, and finally put him prison. When even that didn't silence him, they threw him down a well so he would starve to death. Why? Simply because he was being faithful to what God was asking of him.

Like Jeremiah, our choosing to follow Christ in a fallen world has consequences, and God wants us to be ready for them. Reason why in the Gospel Jesus Says that he came "to set the earth on fire"? And so, Jesus repeats the lesson today, to us. He gives us his mission statement, and invites us to make it our own, to spread the saving fire of Christian virtue and truth to the rest of the world.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Fr. Joy Kumarthusseril, mf

Mensaje del Pastor,

El Profeta Jeremías vivió en un momento tumultuoso de la historia de Israel, alrededor del año 600 AC. La mitad del norte de Israel recientemente había sido conquistada por Asiria, pero la parte pequeña del sur del país, Judá donde se encontraba Jerusalén, y donde vivía Jeremías aún era libre cuando Jeremías nació.

Pero también estaba localizada entre dos imperios poderosos que intentaban conquistar toda el área: Egipto en el sur y Babilonia en el norte. La misión de Jeremías en vida era ser profeta, para recordar al pueblo y a los gobernantes de Judá que confiaran en Dios. Si ellos obedecían los mandamientos y las instrucciones de Dios, Dios los protegería. Desafortunadamente ni los líderes ni el pueblo querían escuchar eso.

En lugar de eso, ellos querían tomar las cosas en sus propias manos, pelear sus propias batallas y arreglar sus propios tratados de paz. La única cosa que ellos no querían era depender y obedecer a Dios. Cada vez que el rey de Judá le pedía consejo a Jeremías, Jeremías oraba, recibía instrucciones y le informaba al rey - y luego el rey hacía exactamente lo contrario. Y entonces Dios le pedía a Jeremías que les hiciera advertencias, pidiéndole a la gente que se arrepintieran. Pero ellos no se arrepentían. Así que finalmente Judá fue conquistado por Babilonia, Jerusalén fue borrado y los judíos fueron llevados al exilio. Con todo eso, Jeremías fue el chivo expiatorio. Dijeron mentiras sobre él, se burlaron de él, quemaron sus escritos y finalmente lo hicieron preso. Cuando ni siquiera eso lo silenció, lo arrojaron a un poso para que muriera de hambre. ¿Por qué? Simplemente porque él era fiel a lo que Dios le había pedido.

Como Jeremías, nuestra elección de seguir a Cristo en un mundo caído tiene sus consecuencias, y Dios quiere que estemos listos para ellas. Es la razón por la que en el Evangelio Jesús dice que El "viene a traer el fuego a la tierra"? Y así, Jesús repite esa lección el día de hoy, para nosotros. Él nos da la declaración de su misión, y nos invita a hacerlo nuestro, para difundir el fuego salvador de la virtud cristiana y la verdad para el resto del mundo.

¡Tengan un bendecido domingo!

Padre Joy Kumarthusseril, mf
