Pastors Message,

Today I would like to write about Venerable Solanus Casey, who probably is unknown to most of us, but, his life could be a curious example. Solanus was born in Wisconsin (USA) in 1870 and died in Detroit, Michigan, in 1957.He came from a farming family, but his pioneering spirit led him to travel around the wild west, taking on various jobs before finally discerning his call to the priesthood. One of those jobs brought him into contact with Jim & Cole Younger, two famous gunfighters who worked for Jesse Woodson James and his gang. Solanus kindness so impressed the outlaws that Cole Younger gave him a present of a clothing trunk, which the future priest brought with him to seminary.

Solanus was not a good student in the seminary - he failed enough classes, that he was invited to leave. But he succeeded on a second try, when he joined the Capuchin Franciscans in Detroit. He was ordained in 1904, though his academic performance was so poor that it disqualified him from hearing confessions and of giving formal sermons. So Solanus spent his nearly fifty years as a priest working as the doorkeeper in various Capuchin parishes from Harlem to Detroit.

He would welcome the poor and the homeless, as well as the affluent – whoever came to the parish in need. Soon he also gained a reputation as a healer and started attracting Protestants and Jews as well as Catholics. As his reputation spread, people came to him by the thousands, looking for comfort, advice, and healing. The growing demands of his ministry simply wore him out. Often, after a grueling day of counseling, he would fall asleep on the floor of his office. Venerable Solanus Casey had major human limitations, but he was so filled with grace, that his life became a great example of God's goodness. So, do not be discouraged because of our limitations. God can work through us even in our limitations!

In this month of October, we invoke the intercession of Mary that she together with Joseph her spouse may guide us in our effort to make our homes and parish community a sacred place where love and brotherhood continue to flourish.

Have a Blessed Month of October!

Fr. Joy Kumarthusseril, mf

Mensaje del Pastor,

El día de hoy quiero escribir sobre el Venerable Solanus Casey, quien probablemente es desconocido para muchos de nosotros, pero su vida podría ser un ejemplo curioso. Solanus nació en Wisconsin (EUA) en 1870 y murió en Detroit, Michigan, en 1957. Era originario de una familia de campo, pero su espíritu pionero lo llevó a viajar por el salvaje oeste, realizando diferentes trabajos antes de discernir su llamado al sacerdocio. Uno de sus trabajos lo llevó a estar en contacto con Jim y Cole Younger, dos pistoleros famosos que trabajaban para Jesse Woodson James y su banda. La bondad de Solanus impresionó tanto a los forajidos que Cole Younger le regaló un baúl lleno de ropa, que el futuro sacerdote llevó consigo al seminario.

En el seminario, Solanus no fue un buen estudiante - reprobó tantas materias que le pidieron que se fuera. Pero en el segundo intento tuvo éxito, cuando se unió a los Franciscanos Capuchinos en Detroit. Fue ordenado sacerdote en 1904, su desempeño académico fue muy pobre que lo descalificó para escuchar confesiones y dar sermones formales. Por ese motivo, Solanus pasó sus cerca de cincuenta años de sacerdote, trabajando como portero en varias Iglesias Capuchinas de Harlem a Detroit.

El daba la bienvenida al pobre y al desamparado, de igual manera que a los opulentos – cualquiera que llegara a la iglesia con necesidades. Muy pronto se gano una reputación de sanador y comenzó a atraer a los protestantes y judíos así como a católicos. A medida que su reputación se extendió la gente vino a él por los miles, buscando confort, consejos y sanación. Las crecientes demandas de su Ministerio simplemente lo agotaron. A menudo después de un día agotador de consejería, se quedaba dormido en el piso de su oficina. El Venerable Solanus Casey tenía grandes limitaciones humanas, pero estaba lleno de gracia, que su vida se convirtió en un gran ejemplo de las bondades de Dios. Por eso, no nos desanimemos por nuestras limitaciones. ¡Dios puede actuar por medio de nosotros, aún con nuestras limitaciones!

En este mes de octubre, invocamos la intercesión de María, que junto con José, su esposo, nos guíen en nuestros esfuerzos para hacer de nuestros hogares y nuestra comunidad parroquial un lugar sagrado donde el amor y la hermandad continúen floreciendo.

¡Tengan un Bendecido Mes de Octubre!
